

THE CLAREMONT COLLEGES LIBRARY

ENLIGHTENMENT IN INK

The Art of Buddhist Prints

EXHIBIT PRESENTED BY THE ASIAN LIBRARY

Join us on the path to enlightenment – through ink!

This exhibit showcases The Claremont Colleges Library's collection of rare Chinese Buddhist prints and manuscripts, most of which date from the late imperial period (Ming and Qing dynasties, 1368-1912).

This array of items attests to Buddhism's role both as a continuing object of scholarly fascination and as a vibrant living tradition that transforms the trajectory of East Asia even to this day.
