

THE CLAREMONT COLLEGES

LIBRARY

SPECIAL COLLECTIONS & ARCHIVES

Explore The Claremont Colleges Library's most distinctive and unique resources for study and research. Our Special Collections & Archives (SCA) holds nearly 200,000 volumes from around the world dating from the 11th to the 21st centuries and over 11,000 linear feet of literary and historical manuscript collections. Our collections also hold photographs, college archives and so much more!

At the heart of SCA is a set of collection strengths that attract a variety of researchers and serve as inspiration for our public programs and academic endeavors. Today's curators balance consolidating SCA's areas of traditional strength and forging new directions to better serve the Library's mission to support teaching, learning and research.

Listed below are the Library's SCA curatorial strengths by subject area. You can explore these collections using the QR code and link below, and feel free to contact us with questions.

Asia & Asian American Studies

Book Arts & Fine Printing

California & Local History

Chicanx, Latinx & Latin America Studies

Cultural History & Social Movements of the 19th-21st Centuries

European History, Economics & Political Science

Gender, Sexuality & Women's Studies

History of Science & Technology

History of The Claremont Colleges

Japanese Americans During WWII

Literature

Performing & Visual Arts

Religion

U.S. & North American History & Politics

Water in the Western U.S.

Learn More:
7clib.cc/SCAsubjects

