

Welcome
COMMUNITY
VISITORS

While The Claremont Colleges Library primarily serves students and faculty of The Claremont Colleges, it also serves as an important center for learning, research and other related academic pursuits for all.

WHY VISIT THE CLAREMONT COLLEGES LIBRARY?

- Attend publicly accessible lectures or other events
- Check out an ongoing exhibit at Special Collections or the Asian Library
- Get hands-on with distinctive and unique Special Collections materials
- Utilize open work spaces throughout the Library building
- Make use of select borrowing privileges
- Visit the Huntley Bookstore
- Enjoy a cup of coffee at Sanctuary Coffee, Campus

Options for Accessing The Claremont Colleges Library

GENERAL VISITORS (NO CARD REQUIRED)

- ✓ For those occasionally visiting to view exhibits, attend an event or stop by the Huntley Bookstore or Sanctuary Coffee, Campus
- ✓ Check in at the Main Services Desk or North Desk

COMMUNITY ACCESS CARD

- ✓ For frequent access to and use of Library spaces only (subject to blackout dates)
- ✓ Anyone is welcome to sign up for this free card at the Main Services Desk

COMMUNITY BORROWER CARD

- ✓ For access to Library spaces and to borrow Library materials (subject to blackout dates)
- ✓ Depending on eligibility, cards are issued for free or for an annual fee; applications can be completed at the Main Services Desk

