FACULTY SERVICES

GET SUPPORT FROM SUBJECT LIBRARIANS

Each discipline has a corresponding subject librarian who can:

- Lead instructional sessions for your classes that teach students research skills.
- Answer your and your students' questions about research or the Library by email, phone, or one-on-one research appointments.
- Collaborate on creating research-based assignments.
- Recommend, help you track down, and acquire resources pertaining to your topic/research (including making purchases, as appropriate).
- Find your subject librarian: library.claremont.edu/librarians

BORROWING PRIVILEGES

Your TCC ID is your Library Card, so you'll use it to swipe in and enter The Claremont Colleges Library, which is physically housed in two adjacent buildings - Honnold and Mudd.

You may borrow an unlimited number of books for one year at a time - and benefit from unlimited renewals available for active accounts in good standing. Visit 7clib.cc/borrow to learn more.

ONLINE RESOURCES

Access the Library's collection of databases, eJournals, eBooks, streaming videos, and so much more through the Library website. You will be prompted to log in using your network login username and password.

When researching on the web, use Claremont LibKey to get one-click access to the full text of articles that the Library subscribes to. Learn how by visiting 7clib.cc/LibKey.

SPECIAL COLLECTIONS & ARCHIVES

Add a completely new dimension to your research and instruction with the Library's rare and unique materials (library.claremont.edu/sca). You can:

- Schedule a class visit to introduce your students to primary sources.
- Develop projects using rare books and archival materials.
- Request a one-on-one research consultation or appointment.

COURSE READINGS

Each semester the Library acquires the textbooks and other assigned course readings used across the 7Cs for your students to access. Submit your course readings to the bookstore at least two weeks before the start of the semester or fill out the Library's Course Readings Request Form to ensure your readings are placed on reserve. Learn more and fill out the request form by visiting library.claremont.edu/course-readings.
